

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Contributors

Preface

Acknowledgments

1 Introduction Emily Lewis 1

1.1 Making the Most of This Resource 1

1.2 Why Definitions Are Important 2

1.3 Terms and Phrases: Animal Cruelty Cases 2

1.4 Terms and Phrases: Veterinary Medicine 3

1.5 Terms and Phrases: Law Enforcement and Field Services 5

1.6 Terms and Phrases: Criminal Law 7

1.7 Looking Ahead 12

References 12

2 Animal Basks Kris Otteman Zarah Hedge Linda Fielder 14

2.1 The History of the Five Freedoms and Their Impact on Animal Welfare Laws 15

2.2 Veterinarians as Experts in the Field 15

2.3 With So Many Species, Where to Begin? 16

2.4 Defining Animals by Category 16

2.5 Animal Basics by Species 16

2.6 Basics That Apply to All Animals 23

2.7 Putting Your Basic Knowledge to Work 24

References 24

3 Fundamentals of All Cases Lindo Fielder 25

3.1 Interdisciplinary Roles 25

3.2 Environment	26
3.3 Sanitation	27
3.4 Food and Water	28
3.5 Nutrition	30
3.6 Documentation	31
3.7 Body Condition	32
3.8 Documenting Body Condition	33
3.9 Dental, Foot, and Hoof Care	33
3.10 Veterinary Care, Medications, and Treatment	35
3.11 Nonaccidental Injury and Trauma	36
3.12 The Link Between Animal Cruelty and Crimes Against Humans	37
3.13 Emergency Issues	37
References	37

4 Initial Investigation and Assessment Linda Fielder 38

4.1 Types of Reports	38
4.2 Anonymous Reports	39
4.3 Required Information	39
4.4 Response Triage	40
4.5 Legitimate or Not? How to Decide	40
4.6 Responding to Calls: Initial Site Visit	40

5 Witness and Subject interviewing Linda Fielder 45

5.1 Preparation for the Interview	45
5.2 Interview Location and Setting	46
5.3 Miranda and Consent	46
5.4 Building Rapport	47

5.5 Ask Clear and Direct Open-Ended Questions	48
5.6 Suspect Interviews	49
5.7 Reading Body Language and Detecting Deception	50
5.8 Confessions	50
5.9 Ending the Interview	51
5.10 Documenting the Interview	51
5.11 Additional Resources and Training	51
References	51

6 The Veterinarian's Role In Animal Cruelty Investigations Kris Otteman 53

6.1 The Veterinarian is an Important Partner in Animal Cruelty Investigations	53
6.2 The Veterinarian's Oath	55
6.3 How Veterinary Forensics Differs from Traditional Veterinary Medicine	55
6.4 Veterinary Confidentiality and Medical Records Requests	56
6.5 Public Information Considerations	57
6.6 Conflicts of Interest	58
6.7 Be Familiar with the Laws	59
6.8 How to Find and Build Knowledge in the Area of Animal Law	59
6.9 Understand What the Prosecutor and Law Enforcement Need to Know	60
6.10 How Animal Cruelty Investigations Surface and Become Active Cases	61
References	62

7 The Veterinary Exam and Treatment Plan Kris Otteman Zarah Hedge 63

7.1 Request and Review Evidentiary Material	64
7.2 Initial Steps	65
7.3 Examination Key Elements	71
7.4 Ongoing Responsibilities of the Veterinarian	83

References 86

8 Setting Expectations and Monitoring Compliance Linda Fielder 87

8.1 Education and Guidance vs. Citation 87

8.2 Passive Neglect and Lack of Resources 88

8.3 Education 89

8.4 Setting Expectations 90

8.5 What You Can and Cannot Require 91

8.6 Conducting Rechecks 92

8.7 What If Nothing Improves or Conditions Worsen? 92

8.8 What About Animal Hoarders? 93

References 94

9 Search Warrants and Seizures Emily Lewis 95

9.1 Exceptions to the Warrant Requirement in Animal Cruelty Cases 95

9.2 Prewarrant Considerations 98

9.3 Drafting of the Affidavit and Search Warrant 103

9.4 Before You Serve the Warrant 110

9.5 Preservice Briefing 114

9.6 Serving the Warrant 115

9.7 Start Documenting the Scene 117

9.8 System for Evidence Documentation and Processing 118

9.9 Processing the Animus 121

9.10 Forms 123

9.11 Discovering Evidence of Other Crimes 127

9.12 The First 24 Hours After the Search Warrant Execution 127

References 128

10 Evidence Collection Emily Lewis 130

10.1 What is Evidence? 130

10.2 How Evidence in Animal Cruelty Cases Differs from Traditional Property Crimes 130

10.3 How to Package the Evidence 136

10.4 What to Do with Evidence Until Trial 152

10.5 Evidence at Trial 154

10.6 Evidence After Trial 155

References 157

11 Veterinary Forensic Necropsy Kris Otteman Zarah Hedge 158

11.1 How a Forensic Necropsy is Different 158

11.2 The Importance of the Forensic Necropsy 158

11.3 Necropsy at the Owner's Request 159

11.4 Packaging and Storing Remains Prior to Necropsy 159

11.5 Forensic Necropsy Equipment and Protocols 160

11.6 Case History 160

11.7 Preparing to Perform the Necropsy 160

11.8 The Necropsy Report 175

11.9 Next Steps 179

11.10 An Important Reminder 179

References 179

12 Report Writing Emily Lewis 180

12.1 Introduction 180

12.2 General Principles 180

12.3 Crime Report 183

12.4 Veterinarian Reports 184

12.5 Witness Statements 189

12.6 The Case Packet 192

12.7 Conclusion 195

13 Protective Custody (Live Animals) Linda Fielder 196

13.1 The Challenge of Live Animal Evidence 196

13.2 The First 24 Hours 197

13.3 Know Your Agency's Capacity 198

13.4 Facility Set-Up and Security 199

13.5 Training Staff and Confidentiality 200

13.6 Paperwork and Record Keeping 201

13.7 Providing Security Without Isolation 202

13.8 Foster Care and Offsite Boarding 203

13.9 Routine and Emergency Veterinary Care 204

13.10 Death in Care and Euthanasia Considerations 204

13.11 Offspring Born in Care 205

13.12 Conclusion 206

References 206

14 Media and Fundraising Emily Lewis 207

14.1 Media Coverage 207

14.2 Handling Negative Press 214

14.3 Internal Communications Policy 215

14.4 Fundraising 215

References 220

15 Forfeiture, Surrender, and Related Legal Remedies David Rosengard 221

15.1 Seized Animals and Reasonable Minimum Care 222

15.2 The Impact of Seizure Expenses - and Responsive Solutions 223

15.3 Voluntary Relinquishment 223

15.4 The Seized Animal as Contraband 224

15.5 Preconviction Forfeiture 226

15.6 Preconviction Forfeiture: Bond-or-Forfeit Statutes 227

15.7 Bond-or-Forfeit Statute Examples 228

15.8 Bond-or-Forfeit statutes Are Constitutionally Compliant 229

15.9 Restitution 230

15.10 Forfeiture via Sentencing 231

15.11 Cost-of-Care Liens 231

15.12 Conclusion 231

References 232

16 Trial Jake Kamins 233

16.1 Trials: An Overview 233

16.2 The Players 234

16.3 How a Typical Criminal Case Gets to Trial 238

16.4 Pretrial Matters 241

16.5 The Trial 242

16.6 Topics for Prosecutors 246

16.7 Conclusion 249

Introduction to the Appendix 250

Appendix A Specific Case Protocols 251

Appendix B Forms and Checklists 329

Appendix C Templates and Agreements 391

Appendix D Resources 425

Index 441.