

TABLE OF CONTENTS – Avian Practice: A Foundation Manual

Species guide

Anatomy and physiology

Husbandry

Reproduction

Behaviour

Nutrition

The bird-friendly practice

Reception guide for the general practice

Handling and transporting birds

History taking and examination

Hospitalization and critical care

Sample taking and basic clinical pathology

Euthanasia: grief and bereavement

Post-mortem examination

Basic techniques

Basic anaesthesia

Basic surgery

Basic radiography

Infectious diseases

Upper respiratory disease

Lower respiratory tract disease

The sick bird

An approach to abnormal or loose droppings

Egg retention

Cloacal, uterine and rectal prolapse

Vomiting and regurgitating bird

Thin bird

Traumatic wing and leg injuries

Feather loss

Sick baby bird

Weakness and seizures.