

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Canine and Feline Geriatric Oncology Honoring the Human-Animal Bond, 2nd Edition

Foreword ix

Preface xiii

Acknowledgements xv

Introduction xix

Part One

Chapter 1 Molecular Biology of Cancer and Aging 3

Chapter 2 Caring for Geriatric Cancer Patients: The Concept of Pawspice and What Is Needed Aside from Medical Care 29

Part Two

Chapter 3 The Warning Signs of Cancer in Geriatric Pets 53

Chapter 4 Basic Types of Cancer and Their Biological Behavior 101

Chapter 5 Generating the Diagnosis and Prognosis of Cancer in Geriatric Pets 117

Part Three

Chapter 6 Treating Cancer in Geriatric Pets 153

Principles and Philosophic Perspective for Treating Geriatric Cancer Patients 153

The Role of Surgery in Cancer Management and “When is It Too Much Surgery” 162

Chemotherapy in the Management of Geriatric Cancer 171

Adverse Effects of Cancer Therapy in Geriatric Pets 188

The Role of Radiation Therapy in Cancer Management 208

Immunotherapy, Cancer Vaccines, and Gene Therapy 216

Chemoprevention and Immunonutrition for Cancer Patients	223
Integrative and Alternative Medicine	234
Electrochemotherapy (ECT)/Electroporation (EP)	239
Metronomic Chemotherapy in Dogs	246
Chapter 7 Pain Control for the Geriatric Cancer Patient	265
Chapter 8 Decision Making with Advanced and Recurrent Cancer in the Geriatric Patient	301
Chapter 9 When and How to Decide That a Geriatric Cancer Patient Is Terminal	345
Chapter 10 Palliative Care: End of Life “Pawspice” Care	367
Chapter 11 Euthanasia for the Geriatric Cancer Patient	399
Chapter 12 The Veterinary Professional/Client Relationship: Supporting Your Clients – Supporting Yourselves	419
Chapter 13 Professional Support: The Well-Being of the Veterinarian and the Team	443
Appendix 1 Specific Tumor Protocols	451
Appendix 2 Handouts for Clients	465
Appendix 3 Canine and Feline Anatomy	477
Index	485.