

TABLE OF CONTENTS – Foals and Young Horses

Headway charity disclaimer	xi
Foreword: From child of nature to trained partner	xiii
The nursing foal to weaning	1
Before you decide to breed	3
Deep trust from the start	4
The final stages of pregnancy	6
The birth of the foal	11
Loss of colostrum	13
Complications	16
After the birth	17
Nursing hurdles	23
Finding the udder	24
The imprinting stage	27
Management and feeding of the nursing foal	31
A good brood mare ...	33
The foal's character	34
What foals should learn	34
Taking care when leading and tying up	43
Differences between colts and fillies	48
Worming and vaccinations	49
Weaning	51
The weaned foal - the first winter	59

Management and feeding in the first winter 61

Do you understand your foal? 69

Reaching an understanding with your weanling 70

Exercises with the yearling 74

The yearling on summer pasture - the second summer 85

Management and feeding of yearlings 87

Family ties 88

Sexual maturity 90

Handling the young stallion 92

Castration 93

Injuries in mixed-age stallion herds on pasture 94

In the herd 96

From yearling to two-year-old-the second winter 97

Management and feeding 99

How do horses learn? 100

Paying close attention 100

More ambitious ground work 102

Ground work 112

Training to load 114

The two-year-old an summer pasture 117

From yearling to two-year-old 119

Management and feeding of two-year-olds 119

Stallion licensing 120

Licensing at three and a half years old 122

Young blood 123

A horse's teeth 124

Exercises for the two-year-old horse 125

From two-year-old to three-the third winter 127

Management and feeding 129

More ambitious exercises 130

Willingness and cooperation 155

Resources 157

Exercises for every age 159

Sources 160

Further reading 160

Useful addresses 160

Index 161.