

TABLE OF CONTENTS – Practical Feline Behaviour: Understanding Cat Behaviour and Improving Welfare

The origin and evolution of the domestic cat.

The senses.

Feline communication.

Social, feeding and predatory behaviour.

Kitten to cat - reproduction and the behavioural development of kittens.

Health and behaviour.

Learning, training and behaviour.

Advice for breeders.

Advice for prospective cat owners.

Advice for cat owners.

Advice for veterinary professionals. Part 1 - The cat in the veterinary clinic.

Advice for veterinary professionals. Part 2 - Advising clients: prevention and treatment of feline behaviour problems.

Advice for other cat carers.

Environmental enrichment.

Reducing resource competition in a multi-cat household.

Neutering.

Introducing an additional cat to your household.

Helping a grieving cat.

Introducing cats and dogs.

Cat flaps.

Teaching your cat to come to you when you call.

Cats, babies and children.

House-training your cat or kitten.

Training your cat to like the cat carrier.

Medicating your cat.

Teaching your cat or kitten to accept veterinary examination.

First aid advice for common feline behaviour problems.

Friend or foe.

Approaching, stroking and picking up.

Recognizing stress.