

TABLE OF CONTENTS – Sentience and Animal Welfare

The qualities that make up sentience.

Ethics, morality and attitudes.

Animal welfare science: history and concepts.

Brain complexity and cognitive ability.

Feelings and emotions.

Awareness and consciousness.

Motivation and needs.

Welfare assessment.

Sentience during development, brain damage and old age.

Ethical decisions about humans and non-humans.

Sustainability, welfare attitudes and education.