

CONTENTS

Preface

Part I: Basic Horsekeeping

1. Facilities

Pasture

Barns

Stalls

Tack Room

Feed Room

Run-In Shed

Fences and Paddocks

Water

Make Sure All Facilities Are Hazard-Free

2. Feeding and Nutrition

Horse Digestion

Basic Nutritional Requirements

Roughages (Forages)

Concentrates

Pelleted Feeds

Supplements

Feed Each Horse as an Individual

3. Seasonal Care

Winter Care

Spring Care

Summer Care

Fall Care

Good Care Is Essential

4. Foot Care

What Makes a Sound Hoof?

Foot Conformation

Basic Foot Care

Going Barefoot

Thrush

White Line Disease

Foot Injuries

Diagnosing Lameness

5. Horse Handling

Horse Sense

Understanding the Horse's Temperament

Cultivating a Good Relationship

Punishing Bad Behavior

Holding a Horse

Tying a Horse

Handling Feet

Using Restraints Properly

Dealing with Bad Manners

Reforming the Mannerless Horse

The Overly Aggressive Horse

Part II: Health Care

6. Reading the Signs of Health and Sickness

Vital Signs

Body Language

Be Observant

7. Disease Prevention

What Is Disease?

How the Immune System Works

Vaccination Schedules

Vaccinating Your Horse

Adverse Reactions to Injections

8. Infectious Diseases of Horses

Tetanus

Equine Encephalomyelitis

West Nile Virus

Strangles

Influenza

Rhinopneumonitis

Pneumonia

Equine Viral Arteritis (EVA)

Equine Infectious Anemia (EIA)

Leptospirosis

Potomac Horse Fever (PHF)

Salmonellosis

Botulism

Rabies

Piroplasmosis

Anthrax

Vesicular Stomatitis (VS)

Lyme Disease

Equine Protozoal Myeloencephalitis (EPM)

Conscientious Care

9. Noninfectious Diseases of Horses

Allergies

Cancer

Heaves (Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease)

Cushing's Disease (Pituitary Pars Intermedia Dysfunction)

Equine Metabolic Syndrome (EMS)

Hepatitis

Laminitis (Founder)

Navicular Syndrome

Muscles Tying Up (Exertional Rhabdomyolysis)

Headshaking

Other Diseases

10. Parasites

Internal Parasites

The Battle against Internal Parasites

External Parasites

11. Toxic Plants and Poisons

Toxic Vegetation

Blister Beetle Poisoning

Chemical Poisons

12. Skin Problems

Allergies and Hives

Photosensitization

Fungal Infections

Rain Rot

Scratches

Warts

Sarcoid Tumors

13. Mental Care and Mouth Problems

Sore Mouth

The Teeth

Tooth Problems

Dental Checkups

14. Eyes and Ears

Eye Problems

Ear Problems

15. Digestive Tract Problems and Colic

Signs of Colic

Types and Causes of Colic

Gastric Ulcers

16. First Aid and Medical Treatment

Emergency Situations

Dealing with Wounds

Fractures

Head Injuries

Choking

Shock

Burns

Snakebite

Porcupine Quills

Urinary Stones

Sheath Swellings

Alternative Treatments

Rehabilitation Facilities and Techniques

Euthanasia

Part III: Breeding Horses

17. Selecting Breeding Stock

What Breed?

Conformation

Selecting Broodmares

Selecting Stallions

18. Genetics

Inheritance of Traits

The Genetics of Color

Types of Breeding

Genetic Defects

Know Your Horses' Genetics

19. Keeping a Stallion

Facilities for a Stallion

Handling a Stallion

Extra Training

Pasture Breeding

Age and Fertility

Breeding Fee

20. Breeding the Mare

The Reproductive Tract

Sending a Mare to Be Bred

Breeding to Your Own Stallion

Understanding Heat Cycles

Teasing Mares

Preparing the Mare for Breeding

The Service

Artificial Insemination (AI)

Fertility Problems in Mares

21. Care of Broodmare

Care of the Mare before Breeding

Abortion

Udder Problems

Countdown to Foaling

22. Foaling

The Foaling Place

When Will She Foal?

Signs of Approaching Labor

Early Labor

Second-Stage (Active) Labor

Breathing after Birth

After a Normal Delivery

Final Stage of Labor

Care of the Mare after Foaling

23. Care of the Newborn Foal

Care Immediately after the Birth

Nursing

The Importance of Colostrum

Bowel Movements

Problems of a Newborn Foal

Premature Foal

Orphan Foal

24. Care of the Young Horse

Handling the Foal

Feeding the Foal

Health Care and Problems of the Foal

Weaning the Foal

Feeding Weanlings and Yearlings

Care of Weanlings and Yearlings

Epilogue

Horse Anatomy

Glossary

Acknowledgments

Additional Interior Credits

Index

Raise a Healthy, Happy Horse with More Books from Storey