

TABLE OF CONTENTS – Veterinary Clinical Skills Manual

Developing veterinary clinical skills: the pedagogy.

The modern outcome-based curriculum and the role of the clinical skills laboratory.

The clinical skills centre models relevant to location.

Theatre practice.

Surgical instruments.

The fundamentals of suturing.

The anaesthetic machine.

Breathing systems, intubation and monitoring.

Laboratory skills and sample collection.

Using a microscope and preparing samples.

Urine and faecal analysis.

Physical examination, fluid therapy, tube and drain management.

Principles of small animal bandaging.

Pharmacy.

General principles of animal handling.

Diagnostic imaging.

Equine radiography - example tarsus.

Udder health.

Equine procedures.

Equine foot related skills: example shoe removal.

Practical assessments - assessments in a simulated environment.

Objectively structured clinical examinations - the practicalities.

'Mind the gap' - the development, validation and evaluation of a veterinary clinical skills model.

Simulators in veterinary clinical skills education: background and examples.

The transition between the clinical skills lab and the real world - perspectives from a new graduate 2 years after qualifying.