

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Comparative Medicine: Disorders Linking Humans with their Animals

- Front Matter
- Failure in Cardiac Action: Comparing Humans, Dogs, Cats, and Horses
- Epilepsy in Humans and Animals: From Patients to Disease Models
- Chronic Kidney Failure Affects Humans and Other Mammalians
- Inflammatory Bowel Disease in Humans, Pets, and Horses
- Out of Breath: Asthma in Humans and Their Animals
- Comparing Two Major Bone Pathologies in Humans and Companion Animals: Osteoporosis and Hyperparathyroidism
- Life Out of Balance: Stress-Related Disorders in Animals and Humans
- Allergies, with Focus on Food Allergies, in Humans and Their Animals
- Allergic and Atopic Eczema in Humans and Their Animals
- Prophylactic Vaccination Against Papillomavirus-Induced Tumour Disease
- Tick Bites and Borrelia Infection: A Problem for Mammalian Species
- Parasitic Infections in Humans and Animals
- Comparing Human Breast Cancer with Canine Mammary Cancer
- Regulatory Animal Testing for the Development of Medicines
- One Health: Many Patients? A Short Theory on What Makes an Animal a Patient.